

McTeer Camp Mess

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

March 14, 2017

For the March McTeer camp mess held at Calhoun's in Maryville, Tennessee, the following members were present:

Camp Commander Max Renfro, A. B. McTeer, Jason McTeer, Dick Bundy, George Lane, Roy Gamble, Richard Holmes, Sam Wilson, Doug Fidler and Camp Secretary Mike Downs.

The meeting started at 12:45 with the arrival of Camp Commander Max Renfro and a warm introduction to our newest member Dick Bundy. (It was indicated that he would be sworn in at the upcoming quarterly meeting)

Richard Holmes passed around the Sweetwater newspaper "The Advocate & Democrat" in which there was an article about his activities in the setting of the head stone for Civil War veteran James Hicks.

Volunteers are still needed for an information table at the forthcoming Tanasi 1796 Program at the Clayton Performing Arts Center on March 25. Contact Max for more details.

Brother Renfro also discussed the Tennessee Department Encampment where Brother David McReynolds was elected as the new Commander.

Brother Fidler discussed with the secretary that he would be turning over the checkbook before the next camp mess to the new treasurer. He still wanted to email, one more time, those individuals who had yet to pay dues. Also noted was that we do not have new membership cards as of yet.

It was also noted that once again Brother George Lane did not have his membership badge with him.
(As he left early he owes the treasury another $2.00)

After much interesting discussion the mess concluded at 1:45 PM.

Mike Downs

Camp Secretary
