1. Commander David H. McReynolds called the meeting to order at 1240 hours. He thanked those who attended the Annual Camp Encampment on 7 Nov 2015 at the East Tennessee Historical Society in Knoxville. It was a very successful meeting. He reminded the Brothers of some upcoming events in which the Camp would participate. These include the Fort Dickerson (14 Nov) Reenactment, Maryville-Alcoa Christmas Parade (12 Dec), and Laying of Wreaths at the Knoxville National Cemetery (12 Dec).
2. Newly-elected CJVC Richard Holmes shared his success with erecting a Federal grave marker that he had obtained from the Veterans Administration to replace the worn out one of Civil War veteran James Eugene Cupp at the Pleasant Hill Methodist Church Cemetery in Maryville, TN. His Delta co-worker William Busser assisted with completing the project. The Camp will provide the SUVCW gravestone dedication ceremony in the Spring.
3. Commander McReynolds announced that he would be attending the Remembrance Day Parade at Gettysbury, PA, and the reenactment of Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address at the Dedication Ceremony. He'll also meet with Senator Lamar Alexander at his Washington office during this time to discuss the awards the Camp received during the 2015 National Encampment.
4. Department Commander Mike Downs reminded everyone that the 2016 Department of Tennessee Annual Encampment will be held in Memphis, TN, on 20 Feb 2016. All are invited to attend.
