

William McTeer Camp Quarterly Meeting

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

March 26, 2017

The Quarterly meeting of the William McTeer Camp #39 was held at the East Tennessee Historical Society on Sunday, March 26, 2017 at 2 PM. Those in attendance included Richard Holmes, Michael Downs, Camp Commander Max Renfro, Jason McTeer, A. B. McTeer, Roy Gamble and Richard Bundy, SEVEN TOTAL MEMBERS PRESENT!

An excellent program was presented by Randal Pierce about long rifles and their makers from East Tennessee. A "Certificate of Appreciation" and a book was presented to Mr. Pierce at the conclusion of his presentation.

The meeting was opened by Brother Renfro at 3:05 Pm, with the minutes from the previous Camp Mess that was held on March 14, 2017 being approved.

The initiation of Brother Richard Bundy was once again postponed due to failure to receive a membership ribbon from the National Quartermaster.

Richard Holmes discussed the feasibility of creating a marker to denote the Last Union Veteran to Pass in the area counties. Brother A. B. McTeer said he would see if he could come up with some type of design. A general discussion of headstones briefly followed.

Brother Renfro announced the next McTeer Camp Mess will be held on April 11, 2017 at Calhoun's in Maryville at 12:30 PM, and the meeting concluded at 4 PM.
